LARRY KING LAW

Most people do not study injury law until something has already gone wrong. This seminar changes that: what Virginia law expects, permits, and protects when someone is injured, explained in plain language by the attorney who has spent his career on these cases.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

The First Ten Minutes

What to do, and what never to say, at the scene

Evidence Disappears Fast

Photos, witnesses, and video: how to preserve them

Virginia's Fault Rule

Why being partly at fault can erase a whole claim

Deadlines That End Claims

Two years is only the beginning of the analysis

Insurance, Explained

Why minimum limits fail, and what UM, UIM, and umbrella really do

How Courts Work

Virginia and federal courts, from filing to appeal

Every attendee receives the printed checklist

"What to Do After an Accident in Virginia" — made to keep in your vehicle
